

AREAS OF SPECIAL INTEREST

Directors are Sandra and Denny Rosen and Rachael and Joel Losoff.

For any medical questions, please contact our Medical Director, Dr. George Sachs.

The office at camp is open Monday through Friday from 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon and from 7:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. The weekend schedule varies but we check for messages frequently. Please check the web site www.campojobwa.com frequently as we work hard to post daily pictures and other information. CAMP'S PHONE NUMBER IS 715-479-8611.

Phone calls are permitted to campers on their birthday and other special occasions approved by the Directors. Faxes and e-mails to campers are allowed only when a parent is out of the country. Cell phones are not permitted. If your son is traveling to camp from outside the Chicago land area and he has a cell phone for safety and communicating, please notify us and make sure he turns the phone into the office upon arriving at camp. We will keep it safe and return the phone to him for the trip back home.

Luggage space on the buses is reserved for staff and out of town campers. Limited other space may be available upon request only.

FOOD AND DRINKS OF ANY KIND ARE NOT PERMITTED AT CAMP.

Food for the bus trip must be consumed prior to arrival. Establishing proper eating habits must begin immediately for your sons healthful well being. Ojibwa takes great pride in our food. Three meals a day, an afternoon snack and a bedtime snack keep our boys well fed.

Campers celebrating their birthday at camp will have a camp sponsored party, receive a camp present and a cake for the celebrant and his cabin. Phone calls only from the parents and grandparents are encouraged.

One of the unique aspects of camp is the avoidance of material things. Two packages per session per camper. Books, magazines, etc. are not considered packages for our purposes. Packages may not contain items that may be dangerous, cause horseplay (balloons, squirt guns, etc.) or be deemed inappropriate by the Directors. Playing cards are also prohibited.

Please feel free to call if you have questions, concerns or comments regarding the information on this page. Your cooperation in following camp's rules gives your sons' the right message.

Please share this information with other members of your family. Thank you.
